

Who I am and What I do:

Sam Mak, an American of Muslim descent and an experienced American-Muslim trainer and facilitator. She candidly walks you through key basic information that anyone interacting with Muslims or watching the news must know. Currently, Islam is the fastest growing religion in the US and in the world and is projected to be the largest religion in the world by 2070. Why are so many individuals turning to Islam, when there is so much negative publicity around Islam? Ms. Mak specializes in information about Muslim perceptions of the United States; Sam is well versed in the history of the region, politics of competing factions, religion, culture, and most importantly their perceptions of you and how they may impact you. You may be surprised by how much there is in common between Islam, Christianity, and Judaism.

Ms. Mak has presented at many schools, community events, and churches. She is also grateful for the opportunity to present to young officers as they serve our country; keeping us safe and acting as representatives of the US in the Muslim world. Join Sam as she walks you through underlying perceptions within the Muslim community that if you knew would give you an edge. Ms. Mak will answer your frank questions and provide you with a Muslim perspective. Ms. Mak is noted for her engaging and candid training on Bridging the gap between Muslims and America.
